

Air Mail Management

iCargoMail is a complete mail handling and mail revenue accounting product designed to support UPU mail handling and messaging standards. The mail handling function is equipped to handle piece (mailbag) level tracking and is compliant with M39 standards of messaging.

iCargo™ is a suite of new generation business systems created specifically to meet the IT requirements of the air freight industry.

The iCargo™ Business Suite is a fully integrated suite of business systems built from the ground up on new generation technology. The iCargo™ solution suite has helped our customers across the globe reduce IT costs, increase revenue, improve customer relations and overall efficiency of operations.

Key business benefits

- 👍 Single point of reference: Integrated air mail handling and invoicing/accounting function
- 👍 Increase service quality: Real time data capture using RF hand-held barcode scanners
- 👍 Adherence to global standards: iCargo Mail is fully compliant with UPU standards for Air Mail Management iCargo™ is a suite of new generation business systems created specifically to meet the IT requirements of the air freight industry.

IT benefits

- 👍 Enhanced deployment and availability: Fully web-enabled and browser-based client
- 👍 Windows-based look and feel: Easier to learn/ adapt
- 👍 Latest technology: Built to J2EE and RDBMS standards exploiting all advantages thereof

Key Business Features

- Import, export and transfer operations of mail consignments
- Full support for UPU standards for EDIFACT messages – CARDIT and RESDIT
- Scanning and printing of UPU standard 29 character mail consignment barcode label
- Integrated RF barcode scanner / PDA enabled functions to carry out mail handling operations
- Support for M-39 requirements for EDIFACT messaging (USPS mandatory requirements)
- Maintenance and calculation of applicable charges for air mail and categories thereof
- Ability to generate invoices for postal administrators for mail carried in a billing period
- Creation of interline invoices for mail transferred from other airlines
- Ability to configure and automatically generate specific accounting entries on completion of specific transactions

Transformational IT Solutions for Travel, Transportation and Logistics
© 2018 IBS Software | For more information: sales-support@ibsplc.com