A modern omnichannel commerce platform for airline passenger services and retailing

ifly
RES

iFly RES is the industry's first Passenger Services System (PSS) and Departure Control System (DCS) with native offer and order management capabilities. NDC and One Order certified with IATA Leader Board airlines, iFly RES is a new generation SaaS platform designed on upgraded industry standards. With customer profiles at its core, the platform boosts airline revenues through innovative and personalized merchandising across channels and traveler touchpoints throughout the journey.

A rich set of APIs and a flexible rules engine enable agile, cross-channel sales and servicing of air and non-air ancillaries. Advanced digital tools and analytics ensure customer-centric travel experiences while maximizing airline revenues. Fully integrated across all airline core processes, iFly RES's modular, cloud-enabled architecture delivers unmatched efficiency, partnership opportunities, and productivity while lowering operating costs.
